

The Sixth Annual Fellowship of Reconciliation* Peace Essay Contest 2012

for Jefferson County High School Students

How could nonviolent strategies be used to accomplish one of the following:

- ✓ Solve a specific national or international conflict in our nation's history
- ✓ End the use of child soldiers in conflicts around the world
- ✓ Reduce the bullying problem in our schools
- ✓ Invent new applications of social networking to solve future conflicts and bring about positive social change

Winners Will Receive

- 1st place -- $200
- 2nd place -- $150
- 3rd place -- $100
- 4th place -- $50

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: March 1st, 2012

This essay contest is an opportunity to get your writing published in the Courier-Journal.

ASK YOUR TEACHER FOR THE GUIDELINES, FIND THEM ONLINE AT forsoothnewspaper.org and/or SEND QUESTIONS TO: foessaycontest@gmail.com*

Interfaith Paths to Peace is a co-sponsor of the contest
